Captain Paul Yep's Message

Police Response Regarding the Homeless

The Officers at Central Station are tasked to respond to numerous calls for service regarding homeless individuals on a daily basis.

What are the police doing when we respond?

1. Determine if a crime has occurred
2. Render aid, if needed (medical emergency?)
3. Determine if a Mental Health Detention is warranted
4. Refer to services

Many times we are called to deal with "suspicious persons" to determine if a crime has occurred or would be likely to occur.

Most of the crimes associated with the homeless populations are misdemeanors or infractions i.e. trespassing, public intoxication, petty theft. These violations result in admonishments and/or the issuance of a citation. More serious crimes, such as aggravated assaults, would result in the individual being booked into county jail.

The vast majority of police contacts with the homeless are "well-being checks" for encampments and persons sleeping or loitering on the sidewalks. In these cases, the police will call for services and/or make referrals for resources. However, the police cannot compel anyone to accept these services.

I recommend using "311" to report these individuals/encampments in order to connect them with a Homeless Outreach Team or the Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing. Also, "311" can connect you to DPW for the clean-up of debris and rubbish. Here is the link to the DSH website: <http://hsh.sfgov.org/>

If a person is unresponsive, unconscious, or has a medical emergency, call "911". We will render First Aid/CPR and/or call for additional Emergency Medical Services.

We are also called to check on persons who may be suffering from mental disability/illness or a dependency issue. If a person is behaving erratically, we will make a determination if they fall under the criteria for a mental health detention (5150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code). If a person is determined to be a "danger to themselves", a "danger to others" and/or "gravely disabled", we will transport them to Psychiatric Emergency Services at San Francisco General Hospital. Many times individuals may display erratic behavior, but do not fit into any of the three categories to warrant a mental health detention.

The Officers at Central Station are committed to working with our City partners to develop other strategies for addressing homelessness in San Francisco.

Featured Officer of the Month

Officer Derek Christensen

Each month Central Police Station features one of its officers in an effort to learn more about the men and women who police our neighborhood. This month, we interviewed Officer Derek Christensen, a 6-year member of Central Police Station.

Officer Christensen was born in Honolulu, Hawaii. He attended Iolani High School in Hawaii. After high school, he attended college at the University of San Francisco and graduated with a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration.

Officer Christensen joined the San Francisco Police Department in January 2009. After graduating from the Police Academy, he was assigned to Mission Station for field training. After field training, he was assigned to Southern Station for probation. After probation in 2011, he was assigned to Central Station for his permanent station and he has been with Central Station since.

Officer Christensen's favorite thing about the Central is interacting with the local residents as well as the tourists. He says that "Both are grateful for the work that our Department does. They are even more grateful when we arrest burglars and get their stuff back!" He also enjoys working with the Officers at Central Station. He says, "I grew up playing on teams, and Central Officers are the best teammates thus far. All our bosses are extremely supportive and are great leaders. The food is pretty good, too! I'll always have the best stories from the Central! Central District is the best part of the city – the sights, attractions and activities."
